Graphic Designer

The Center on Finance, Law & Policy is seeking a part-time student graphic designer. Students will work directly with the Center’s Assistant Executive Director to publicize Center programs and events by creating a wide variety of products. These include, but are not limited to: posters, programs, social media images, flyers, brochures, reports, and donor communications. Work study students are preferred, but the position is open to non-work study students as well.

Requirements: Applicant must be a current University of Michigan student with exceptional design skills. The candidate must be proficient in Adobe Illustrator, InDesign and Photoshop; working knowledge of Drupal also desired. Must be able to work independently and meet deadlines. The ideal candidate will be excited by the idea of translating complex concepts into accessible design through non-traditional medium such as comics, animation, or video. Preference will be given to Stamps School of Art & Design applicants, those with extensive work experience in design and those with work-study in their financial aid packages.

Educational Value for Work Study Students: Students will learn about financial institutions, administrative law, and how to depict complex topics in finance and policy.

Timing and Pay: $12/hour. 8-15 hours/week. May – August, 2020. Ideally, this would extend to the fall and even winter semesters.

How to apply: This position does not require a writing sample. To apply, please send a cover letter and a mini portfolio with at least three samples of your work to tvanduse@umich.edu (Please note: Do not submit applications via the Student Employment Office portal. Please note whether you are a work study student in your cover letter.)
